

TRI i DVE

Felix FROSCHHAMMER - Violin
Nico PRINZ - Cello
Tashko TASHEFF - Double bass
Asami UEMURA - Harp
Ivaylo DIMITROV - Accordion

Formed in 2008, TRI i DVE is a group of five musicians from Germany, Switzerland, Bulgaria and Japan, now based in Lausanne.

The name 'TRI i DVE' is Bulgarian for 'Three and Two', evoking the asymmetry of Balkan rhythms as well as the group's facility to perform duos and trios as well as quintets.

All outstanding professional classical musicians, they take their listeners on a musical journey from east to west, playing everything from Tzigane, Klezmer and Balkan music (particularly Bulgarian), to the salon music of Vienna and Italy, and from traditional airs to classical repertoire by composers including Bartok, Monti and Brahms. This vast repertoire is performed on a range of instruments, both classical and traditional.

TRI i DVE appears regularly in Switzerland at festivals including Cully Classique Festival, Boswil Musiksommer, Festival du Bois qui chante in Château d'Oex as well as at the Guilde de la Musique de Chambre and at the Jeunesses Musicales Suisse where they also lead workshops.

They also perform in the United Kingdom, France, Germany and Italy and have collaborated with such musicians as Nebojsa Zivkovic, Wynne Evans, Tchiki Duo, Blaise Mettraux and with many orchestras and choirs in Switzerland.

www.3i2.info

-Contact-

Martine TIERCY

3i2promo@bluewin.ch